

Cascade Pacific Council Hosting BALOO TRAINING

BALOO TRAINING (Classroom/Outdoor) Basic Adult Leader Outdoor Orientation is a two-day training event that introduces Cubmasters, Den Leaders, other pack leaders and parents to the skills needed to plan and conduct pack outdoor activities, particularly pack camping.

Participants are going to need:

- BSA Medical Form Parts A & B
- BALOO Prerequisite Online Training

- Tent and Sleeping Bag
- Equipment for a weekend camping trip

Participants will gain from taking this training:

- The skills needed to plan a successful Cub Scout-Level overnight event.
- The practical implementation of those Cub Scout-level outdoor skills.

Saturday-Sunday, April 1st and 2nd, 2023

Saturday Check-In at 8:30am, Sunday Afternoon Dismissal at Noon

Location: Camp Clark

17500 Cape Lookout Rd, Cloverdale, OR 97112

Pre-Registration is Required at:

<https://cpcbsa.org/upcoming-events/calendar/>

Saturday lunch, which you will prepare, will be provided as part of the BALOO course. All other meals will either be eaten with your host unit or, if you are not attending with a unit, with the Super Weekend and BALOO staffs in the Camp Clark dining hall.

You should complete the BALOO Prerequisite Online Training prior to arriving at camp.

As part of the course, you are expected to sleep overnight Saturday evening in a tent you have setup, so please bring a tent and appropriate sleeping gear!
