Feature Assistant Chrome Extension and Firefox Add-on for Scoutbook

NOTE: This extension/add-on has been developed by a volunteer. Any support or update is the responsibility of the volunteer.

Summary: This is a Chrome Extension and Firefox Add-on that supplements a variety of basic Scoutbook features. The extension works on any non-mobile browser supported by Chrome, and the Firefox Add on works on all Firefox supported platforms, (currently excluding mobile Android due to excessively restrictive Firefox policies). This document will describe how to install the extension and provides a Table of Contents of supported features.

NOTE: Google has announced that they will not extend extension support for mobile platforms such as your smartphone. Sorry! But it isn't too hard to install Firefox on your mobile and use it if you need these features on your mobile device!

Table of Contents

4. Click Add

5. A popup will tell you it's been successfully installed.
6. In Firefox, the extension may NOT automatically be loaded into an open Scoutbook tab upon installation. To be sure you have it loaded on your tab, open a new tab.

Things to know about extensions/Add-ons:

An extension/Add-on can automate repetitive user actions and alter the displayed pages. They do not have the ability to store new types of information in Scoutbook.

This extension/Add-on interprets Scoutbook pages. Changes by Scoutbook to the format and content of existing Scoutbook pages can break the functions of the extension.

Troubleshooting:

If something isn't working, first verify that the extension is loaded by looking at the footer on Scoutbook pages (e.g. the Dashboard). Check to make sure it says Feature Assistant Active as shown below.

If there are menu options that you do not see on your Unit page (e.g. Quick Entry), it is for one of two reasons:

- 1) You do not have permission to use the feature. Look at the help documentation for the feature and verify that you hold the appropriate position in you unit, and that your position is approved by an Admin in your unit.

- 2) If you have reloaded a page, or navigated to a page after logging in without FIRST going to your dashboard, the extension is unaware of your positions in the unit and will not display menu options. To resolve, simply navigate to your dashboard and back.
